M. CASIMIR - PERIER.

He Has Been Selected President of France.

BUT ONE BALLOT NECESSARY.

He Receives 451 Votes Out of 853 in the Congress—A Brief Speech and the Session Is Over—A Triumphal Journey Back to Paris—Carnot's Funeral Completely Arranged.

PARIS, June 28.—Nothing more unlikely than an American election could well be imagined than the French presidential election which yesterday made M. Casimir-Perier president of the French republic for a full term of seven years.

M. CASIMIR-PERIER.

The constitution ordains that the successful candidate for the presidency of the republic must have the highest number of votes above all other candidates. M. Casimir-Perier yesterday had 451 out of 853. There were 877 members present, but 24 abstained from voting.

The congress was called to order in the palace of Versailles by M. Challemel-Lacour at 1:10 p.m. At least five minutes elapsed after the formal call to order before there was sufficient quiet to enable the presiding officer to be heard. When finally the assembly became orderly M. Challemel-Lacour announced the tragic death of M. Carnot, and declared the congress open for the purpose of electing his successor.

Scarcely had the president ceased speaking when M. Michelin, socialist, sprang to his feet and shouted: "I demand the suppression of the presidency of the republic."

A tumultuous scene ensued, the uproar being so great that the president could not make himself heard. The socialists seemed to be the stronger lunged, and their cries of "Vive revolution" could be heard all over the hall.

M. Debaudry D'Asson proposed a revision of the constitution, but they were quickly silenced by the president. Lots were then cast for a ballot, the object being to see which letter the ballot should begin with. The letter "L" was drawn, and the name of M. Labarthe, Moderate Republican, was the first called. In accordance with the custom, M. Labarthe ascended the rostrum, and, being recognized by the scrutator, placed his ticket in the great urn which serves as a ballot-box, and descended and returned to his seat.

The senators and deputies, whose names were subsequently called, went through the same ceremony. The voting proceeded monotonously in this way. At 1:55 p.m. the letter "R" was reached. As there are no formal nominations or speeches to indicate the preference of the voters, it was impossible to form any accurate idea of the voting. The names of the candidates were written on small bits of paper, which were folded and deposited in the urn.

About 2 o'clock a small panic occurred in the lobbies, owing to the escape of gas, which filled the corridors and made respiration difficult. The fire brigade and a force of workmen were immediately summoned. Smoking was forbidden, and the order was complied with without remonstrance. The leak was finally found and the panic subsided.

At 3 o'clock M. Casimir-Perier arrived from Paris. He walked nervously about the passages of the committee rooms. At 3:30 o'clock 853 votes had been cast. One other vote had been refused. Breathless anxiety reigned while the votes were being counted. The speaker then declared the result of the first and only ballot.

M. Challemel-Lacour said: "M. Casimir-Perier having obtained an absolute majority, I proclaim him president of the French republic."

The following is the complete result of the poll: M. Casimir-Perier, 451; M. Brisson, 191; M. Dupuy, 99; General Fevrier, 53; M. Arago, 27; scattering, 32. Total 853.

Tremendous cheering greeted the announcement of the result of the vote. The socialists, however, made vociferous protests, but these socialist clamors were drowned by torrents of counter cheering.

In officially notifying M. Casimir-Perier of his election to the presidency M. Challemel-Lacour delivered an eloquent oration, and in reply M. Casimir-Perier said:

"I can scarcely restrain the emotion I now feel. The national assembly bestows upon me the greatest honor a citizen can ever receive by imposing upon me the heaviest moral responsibilities a man can bear. I shall give my country all that is in me of energy and patriotism. I shall give the republic all the warmth of my convictions, which have never varied. I shall give the democracy all my devotion, all my heart, as did he whose loss we now deplore. Finally, I shall endeavor to do all my duty."

M. Challemel-Lacour then ordered the secretary to read the minutes of the meeting, and the session of the national assembly was then closed with cries of "Vive la république."

The new president received the congratulations of Premier Dupuy and the cabinet ministers and a large number of senators and deputies in the room set apart for the use of the cabinet. Afterward he received the congratulations of the correspondents of the various newspapers represented at Versailles upon this occasion. Replying to the newspaper men, M. Casimir-Perier said: "I have only one word to say. You may discuss me—I belong to you; but, never forget France and the republic."

A little later, a four-horse landau, the horses inscribed: "Consilio non impetu," drove into the courtyard. M. Casimir-Perier, the president-elect, entered the vehicle and started for Paris, escorted by a detachment of dragoons with lances from which bright colored pennons were flying, in order to make his official entry, in the customary manner, and somewhat after the style of the kings of France, into the capital of France.

The new president received an immense ovation from the dense crowds of people who lined the route from Versailles.

As he drove off he bowed pleasantly. He looks younger than his age. He has an erect carriage and precipitate dictation, and there is little out of the common in his air. His countenance and bearing are rather military, though he is a civilian. The president's cortege followed the high road to the city and then passed along the avenue Des Champs-Elysées. As the remains of Carnot are yet unburied the usual installation at the palace of the Elysée was foregone. Casimir-Perier was driven direct to the Quai d'Orsay, where he arrived at 7:30 o'clock.

An attempt was made yesterday evening to send out the St. Paul train on the Chicago Great Western with a Pullman sleeper attached. The train started out, but when it was found that the sleeper had been coupled on, a trainman pulled the bell rope, and as the engineer reversed the engine, 20 men rushed to the coupling and in a few moments the train pulled out, leaving the Pullman in the depot. Crowds of strikers and sympathizers gathered in the railroad yards in different portions of the city and the police were kept busy quelling threatening riots.

Strikers drove Illinois Central employees from the yards at Fordham despite the efforts of a detail of police, and an additional force was sent to that point. Later in the evening a large crowd gathered in the Western Indiana yards at Archer avenue, and became so threateningly demonstrative that the police force there was doubled.

The three signalmen who control the switches at the Western Indiana tracks at Archer avenue joined the strikers at 8:30 o'clock, blocking the system. Under a heavy police guard a new signalman was placed in the tower and the blockade was raised, the crowd making no demonstrations.

At 9:30 o'clock the San Francisco limited over the Santa Fe with four Pullman cars passed the crossing in safety, the crowd making no demonstration.

The 75 signalmen and 15 switchmen employed in the Western Indiana yards are all on a strike.

A general tie-up on the Michigan Central road was narrowly averted. The union was notified that the Michigan Central was engaged in switching coaches for the road whose men are out.

The superintendent of the Michigan Central was at once notified that if there was further attempt on the part of his road to assist the Illinois Central every man in the employ of the Michigan Central would be called out. Orders were given the men to have nothing more to do with the Illinois Central cars.

The Michigan Central trains, which run out over the Illinois Central tracks, made their scheduled time without any difficulty. Every time one of them passed with its Wagner cars, the crowds at Grand crossing cheered.

When the Diamond special, with several Pullman sleepers went through Grand crossing on its way to St. Louis, the crowd became demonstrative. When the train stopped for the crossing the crowd surged across the tracks and the officers had some difficulty in restraining them, but finally succeeded in clearing the way. One switchman was arrested.

Not a wheel was moved in connection with the Illinois Central suburban service after 9 o'clock. Seven train crews after having brought their trains into the Central station refused to take them out again.

At a late hour last night an official of the American Railway union stated that the engineers and firemen of five Chicago roads will be ordered out. The roads to be affected, he stated, were the Santa Fe, Baltimore and Ohio, Chicago, St. Paul and Kansas City, the Northwestern and the Illinois Central. Members of the union claimed to have assurances that the men will quit work as soon as the order reaches them.

NOT A WHEEL TURNING.
The Tie-Up Complete All Through Montana.

HELENA, Mon., June 28.—The first effect of the Pullman boycott was seen here where the eastbound Northern Pacific train arrived. The westbound train was bound up at Livingston, and the superintendent of the Montana division ordered the eastbound train to be killed when it got to Helena. This was done, and the 200 passengers that were aboard are scattered about the city sightseeing. There has been no excitement of any kind, and everyone takes the situation good naturedly.

On the Montana division extending from Helena to Livingston not a wheel is moving. This is due to the fact that the shopmen at the latter point have taken advantage of the Pullman boycott to present their demands for an increase of pay, and in sympathy with them, other employes have gone out on that CHICAGO, June 28.—The employees of the Chicago Great Western railway went out last night, making a total of 11 Chicago roads now tied up or crippled by the American Railway union boycott of Pullman cars. The roads so far affected by the strike at this point are the Illinois Central, Santa Fe, Chicago Great Western, Chicago and Northern Pacific, Western Indiana, Wisconsin Central, Chicago and Eastern Illinois, Wabash, Grand Trunk, Monon and the Baltimore and Ohio.

On some of these roads Pullman cars are still being carried, but the strike leaders confidently asserted that tomorrow will see the boycott completely effective. The men who have been leaving slowly, and in small lots, are beginning to show the effects of the American Railway union's missionary work, and the boycott sentiment is much more general and apparent than at any previous time since the strike.

An attempt was made yesterday evening to send out the St. Paul train on the Chicago Great Western with a Pullman sleeper attached. The train started out, but when it was found that the sleeper had been coupled on, a trainman pulled the bell rope, and as the engineer reversed the engine, 20 men rushed to the coupling and in a few moments the train pulled out, leaving the Pullman in the depot.

NOT A WHEEL TURNING.

The Tie-Up Complete All Through Montana.

On the Montana division extending from Helena to Livingston not a wheel is moving. This is due to the fact that the shopmen at the latter point have taken advantage of the Pullman boycott to present their demands for an increase of pay, and in sympathy with them, other employes have gone out on that division. There are a lot of tourists at Livingston and at National park who have been caught in the tie-up.

No freight is moving east of Helena, in this state, but from Helena west freight trains are operated.

The Great Northern, which runs its own sleeping cars, is running all right, and yesterday for the first time in two months began running through trains to the sound.

TROUBLE EXPECTED.
Passenger Trains Stopped and Pullman Cars Cut Out.

CAIRO, Ills., June 28.—Switchmen belonging to the American Railway union cut out a Pullman sleeper attached to a Mobile and Ohio train which arrived from St. Louis. Leaving the Union depot, the switchmen went to the Illinois Central depot and uncoupled a Pullman coach. Superintendent Baker coupled it again, and the train proceeded without further trouble.

In the afternoon two Pullman coaches arrived, and one was afterward coupled and chained to a train made up to leave for Chicago at 4 p.m. Two switchmen broke the chains, and uncoupling the coach, ran it back into the yards. Warrants for their arrest were sworn out, but were not served. Trainmaster Bevington caused the train to be backed into the yard, and he coupled the coach and departed unmolested. Trouble is expected at the Union depot if the Mobile and Ohio tries to take out a Pullman sleeper.

STRIKE ON THE SANTA FE.
Railroad Men Determined Not to Move Pullman Cars.

LAS VEGAS, N. M., June 28.—Railroad men here are quiet, but their determination not to move a Pullman is very apparent. The presence of a United States marshal and a number of deputies loaded down with guns had no effect on them. Engineer Jerry De Long and Fireman Reed Oldham, were in the cab of the noon train from the south ready to start out at a moment's notice should the Pullman be moved, but refused to budge otherwise.

A telegram came from Manager Frey, discharging the men, and it has just been announced that a general strike has been ordered on the whole Santa Fe system until these men shall be reinstated.

At Nebraska Points.

OMAHA, June 28.—The boycott on the Pullman company is not being felt here directly at present, but the indications are that it will be a factor in railroad circles in this vicinity shortly. The American Railway union members are more numerous at small points west than at Omaha and it is thought the trouble will occur. This applies to the division towns on the Union Pacific, Burlington, Rock Island and Missouri Pacific.

Local members of the American Railway union pretend not to be much interested in the developments, but some slight alarm is felt on account of the attitude of some of the members at Nebraska points, where it is thought the men will refuse to switch or handle trains carrying Pullmans.

Complete Tie-Up in California.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—It is impossible for a person to leave the state of California by rail. Not a train except those engaged in suburban traffic, is moving in the whole state. The Southern Pacific company adhered to its determination not to run trains without Pullman cars, and the trainmen were equally as determined not to handle the cars bearing the hated name Pullman. Consequently the hundreds of people who expected to travel north, south and east, were forced to return to San Francisco. The trainmen went to their homes and the big Oakland mole was deserted, except for the ferryboat employees and the suburbanans.

General Strike Ordered.

RATON, N. M., June 28.—President Debs of the American Railway union has issued the order for a strike on the entire Santa Fe system. The men are ordered to remain out until the discharged employees shall be reinstated. Not a wheel is moving on the entire New Mexican division. Several arrests will be made if the United States marshals succeed in getting here from Santa Fe. The passengers are making the best of the situation.

Judge Leeds of Santa Fe has issued an injunction restraining the strikers from intervening with the property of the company in New Mexico.

Tied Up in North Dakota.

FARGO, N. D., June 28.—At 6 o'clock last night officers of the local American Railway union received orders to quit work on the Northern Pacific and the men went out in a body. Early evening trains left on time, but No. 2 from the west three hours late. As fast as crews come in, they quit work. An open meeting of the American Railway union was held last night and several hundred railroad men were addressed by members of the order and urged to join. It is reported here that the line in Montana is effectively tied up.

Tried to Coerce a Miner.

BRAZIL, Ind., June 28.—W. W. Risher of the Crawford Coal company pleaded guilty yesterday to the charge of endeavoring to coerce John H. Adams, a miner employed by the company, to trade at the company's store, and was fined. It is claimed that several coal companies are endeavoring to force their employes to trade at their stores, and quite a number of suits will be filed against the operators without.

ROCK ISLAND, Ills., June 28.—The Republican congressional convention of the Tenth district nominated General P. S. Post for congress by acclamation.

Several More Amendments to the Tariff Bill.

SOME PASSED, SOME DEFEATED.

NO Important Changes Made in the Bill as It Was Introduced—The House Deadlocked Over the New Mexico Statehood Bill—A Few Bills Passed by the House Before the Deadlock.

WASHINGTON, June 28.—In the senate a bill to amend the act providing for the times and places for holding terms of United States court in the state of Washington, was passed.

The debate on the income tax provisions of the tariff bill was resumed. The pending amendment was that of Mr. Allison to exempt corporations, companies or associations having a capital stock of less than $100,000.

After a lengthy discussion Mr. Allison modified his amendment so as to exempt corporations whose capital and surplus did not exceed $100,000, the cost of insurance, etc., of any manufacturing or trading company to be considered in estimating expenses. Lost—24 to 31.

Mr. Hoar offered his amendment to exempt joint stock companies, corporations and associations whose incomes do not exceed $4,000. Lost—28 to 30.

Mr. Hill offered an amendment to the end of Section 59 to exempt corporations created by the states which, by the terms of their incorporations are required to pay a special tax on their earnings, dividends and franchises to the state other than the general tax. Defeated—25 to 30.

Fair, warmer weather.

WHEN the leopard can change its spots, and not until then, may Republicans look for a change in the management of affairs in this county, from Democrats to Republicans.

OUR Republican friends are deluding themselves with the hope that they shall ride into office on the misconception of some that the Democrats are responsible for the hard times, discontent, strikes, &c., a condition of things for which the g. o. p. party is almost altogether and entirely responsible.

The Portsmouth Blade, commenting on an item the BULLETIN recently copied from an exchange, has the following:

Here and there there is a Democrat with the intelligence to understand that it was the plate upon which the tariff was put, and not the pig tin, but the editor of the Maysville BULLETIN is not one of them. Pig tin has always been admitted free of duty.

Now read this, from the Pittsburgh Post:

McKinley paid a duty of 4 cents a pound on block or pig tin to develop tin mining in the Black Hills. It didn't develop to the extent of a pound, but in the meantime the 4-cent tax goes on. The year his bill passed we imported only 35,000,000 pounds, but last year the imports ran up to 60,575,000 pounds, on which American manufacturers are taxed 4 cents a pound. It means in a measure the tax on tin plate, but Cronemyer & Co., while insisting that this tax shall remain, or go higher, have nothing to say about the tax on pig tin. This tariff tinkering by McKinley is about as profound as his shutting off $60,000,000 revenue from sugar and giving the sugar trust $23,000,000, and the Louisiana planters, $11,000,000. McKinley's operations in sugar amounted to a loss to the treasury of about $75,000,000 for the current year, which is nearly the precise amount of the deficiency between government receipts and expenditures.

Just to clinch the matter and rub it in on the Blade, the Portsmouth Times adds:

It this is not sufficient to convince the editor of the Blade let him turn in the McKinley bill (of course he has copy) to section 209 and read for himself. Pig tin has paid a tariff of cents a pound since July 1, 1893. We ask the Blade to be honest enough to publish this section. It will not refer to it again. It never makes a specific statement but can be disproven by record testimony.

Chief Republicans Buglemen as Usual.

Says the Catlettsburg Democrat: "An effort was made here last week to organize a lodge of A. P. A., and the chief buglemen were Republicans, as has been the case whenever the organization has found a footing, but their plans didn't pan out, so to speak, and as yet the order has not been able to establish here a recruiting camp for the Republican party. Our advice to Democrats is to keep out of secret political societies and stick close to the Democratic doctrine that every man has the right to worship God according to the dictates of conscience, without fear of molestation. It should be the aim of all to encourage greater reverence for Deity without regard to what church or sect one affiliates with."

WEEKLY CROP REPORT.

Reports Relative to Tobacco Generally Discouraging—The Wheat, Corn and Fruits.

The weather conditions of the past week were very similar to those reported for the preceding one, except that the local thunder storms were more general and frequent. The temperature was abnormally high each day of the week, the average maximum being about 92°. Partially cloudy weather prevailed during the greater part of the time, but the amount of sunshine received was amply sufficient for the needs of all crops. The amount of rainfall for the State as a whole was less than the normal, though some localities of limited area received a large excess. The rain came mainly in the form of local thunder storms, which appear to have been most frequent and heaviest in the northern counties. It is thought, however, that the greater portion of the State received more or less precipitation during the week from these storms.

The conditions have favored the harvesting of wheat, which work is nearly completed in the southern and western counties, and is in progress in all other sections of the State except in the extreme east, where it is about ready to cut. As the harvest progresses, it becomes more evident that the yield of grain is much better than was anticipated. The reports regarding it received this week are of an almost uniformly favorable character.

The average condition of corn has improved during the week, though in many places, especially in the case of that planted upon high ground, it has suffered from the lack of sufficient rain. Corn in the lowlands is growing finely and the general condition of the crop, while slightly behind the season, is very encouraging.

Oats are ripening and are about ready to cut in some places. The yield will undoubtedly be short, but the grain is reported to be of fine quality.

Reports relative to tobacco are generally discouraging. The early planted fields look well as a rule, but there has been no good season for the late setting. Advantage was taken of the showers of the week to complete the work of transplanting, but the rains have not been sufficiently heavy or general to allow the plants to become well rooted in the soil. Much of the crop yet remains unplanted and there is a very general complaint that the plants recently set are dying on the hill.

Indications point to a fair crop of blackberries, but the outlook for other small fruits is not encouraging.

Apples are falling off the trees and it seems probable that but comparatively few of them will remain to mature.

Better Feeling in Business Circles.

Cincinnati Post: "It is no longer 'business will revive.' It is 'business has revived.' The bank clearances for the country at large for the past week showed but a small reduction when compared with the period of 1893. The number of business failures last week was 214, while last year there were 273. The banks of New York City increased their loans last week $2,549,800, while the recent preceding weekly gains fell short of $500,000, and earlier in the month there was a decrease. These illustrations show that there is a better feeling in business circles."

Mrs. J. D. Bruer, who has been ill for several days, became much worse yesterday afternoon. The BULLETIN is glad to announce that she was much better this morning.

Red Men of Guiana.

There are still "red men" in Guiana, according to Mr. Smith Delacour's report—descendants of the inhabitants at the time of its discovery. They are apparently of three or more separate origins.

The oldest inhabitants are believed to be the Warraus, who lead a semi-aquatic life, without agriculture and rather as fishers than as hunters. Where these people came from is not known. Of more certain origin are the second set, the Arawacks, who were driven southward from the West Indian islands. After them came a whole series of Carib tribes, who were also forced southward from the West Indies. Just before the advent of the Europeans the last of the Carib tribes made its appearance, and its people were known as the "True Caribs."

In life and surroundings there is no great difference between any of the existing tribes. They live in small family groups, the mutual relations of the members being admirably regulated by a very decided though unwritten code.

They pass perfectly simple lives, the happiness of which seems to be enhanced by the inevitable collisions with other tribes. A sufficiency of food is procured by hunting and fishing and a primitive kind of agriculture. Their houses, adds Mr. Smith Delacour, are of the simplest, but exactly what is required, and the furniture is usually a hammock. Clothing is "a question for the future."

MACKOY QUIT.

Leaving Four Candidates to Finish the Fight For the Appellate Judgeship Nomination.

Last Monday Hon. W. H. Mackoy, of Covington, in response to a call made on him by some of the Democrats of Kenton County, announced himself as a candidate for the Appellate Judgeship nomination in this district. It was charged at the time that Mr. Mackoy was simply being used by the enemies of Hon. Wm. Goebel, also of Covington, in the effort to defeat that gentleman, and Goebel's friends proceeded to make things hot for Mr. Mackoy.

Yesterday, Mr. Mackoy surprised the people down that way by publishing a card in the Commonwealth, withdrawing from the race. He says: "A few days has shown me how seriously my election to the bench, if it should occur, would affect other engagements and plans of an imperative character, and duties which I owe to others. I am compelled, therefore, upon fuller and more careful consideration, to withdraw my acceptance of your call."

This leaves four candidates now to finish the fight—Congressman Paynter, Colonel Washington, Senator Goebel and Hon. Leslie Applegate. At this time it looks like it will be the field against Mr. Paynter when the convention meets at Augusta, with the probability that the finish will be between the Greenup candidate and either Mr. Goebel or Colonel Washington.

The Augusta Reporter now says that "Bracken's vote is sure to be cast for the Hon. Thomas H. Paynter."

Rev. J. S. Felix.

An item was copied from the Paris Kentuckian a few days ago stating that Rev. J. S. Felix, the well-known Baptist minister, was hopelessly insane and was confined in a sanitarium at Cincinnati. It has appeared in several Kentucky papers. The BULLETIN learns from a reliable source that there is no truth in the report that Mr. Felix is insane. He has never had any symptoms of dementia. There has never been the slightest indication of insanity, but his trouble is neurasthenia, brought on by extreme exhaustion from overwork. He is at present at the College Hill Sanitarium under the treatment of Drs. Everts and Williams. Mr. Felix is not confined, but on the contrary his stay there is voluntary, and in accord with his own best judgment. Accompanying his trouble, as is usual in such cases, goes despondency, but the statement of his constantly repeating the words attributed to him by the article taken from the Kentuckian, or anything else, has no foundation. In the opinion of all the physicians and specialists who have treated or examined him, he will recover as his exhausted vitality is recuperated.

CARLISLE MERCURY: "We had the pleasure of attending Evangelist Fife's meeting at Cynthiana last Monday, and were rather disappointed in his discourse. While he was somewhat eccentric, he was by no means disagreeably sensational. He displayed a wonderful familiarity with the Scriptures by promptly calling out the verse and chapter of Scriptures quoted or recited by various persons in the audience. Some thirty or forty verses were repeated by the congregation and he promptly stated the book, chapter and verse where they could be found, embracing subjects from Genesis to Revelation. He impressed us as a very earnest preacher."

WE WILL HAVE FRUIT,
Although There Is Not Going to Be Any
Rot on the Ground.

CHICAGO, June 28.—A special report has been prepared by The Farmers' Review on the condition and prospects of fruit in most of the states usually covered by its reports, from which the following excerpts are taken:

Illinois—Few apples will be sent to market, not more than one county in nine reporting a good crop; peaches and pears are regarded as a complete failure; plums are a poor crop; cherries light crop; prospects for grapes and blackberries heavy crops.

Michigan—is among the fortunate states. Her apple crop will be large; peaches promise well; pears average crop; plums fair; cherries good crop; blackberries light crop; other small fruit fair.

Indiana—Apples poor prospect; three-fourths crop pears; plums and cherries scarce; grapes and blackberries good crop; other small fruits poor prospect.

Missouri—Apple crop will be far below an average, very few counties reporting even 70 or 80 per cent. One-fourth to one-half crop is a common report, while in some localities the yield will be almost nothing. The quality will generally be good. The best outlook is in the northern part of the state.

Peaches extra crop; pears and plums half crop; less than half crop cherries; grapes good average crop.

Iowa—Fair crop apples; peaches failure; pears light crop; plums 70 per cent crop; cherries 80 per cent; grapes half crop; blackberries average; other small fruits fair.

Wisconsin—Apples, plums and cherries good; blackberries good; others fair to shade below average.

Minnesota—Apples, prospects are poor and the yield for the state will be light; plums poor; grapes small crop; blackberries average; raspberries and others fair.

Reports from Ohio are too meager to permit of giving a full report, but from the information at hand the conditions as to fruit appear to be similar to those in Indiana and Illinois.

PRISON INSURGENTS.

One Killed and Another Seriously Hurt in the Noted Charlestown Pen.

BOSTON, June 28.—An alarm of fire was rung in from the Charlestown prison Wednesday afternoon for a small blaze in the prison. It was caused by an outbreak among the prisoners in which one was fatally shot and another seriously hurt. The fire started in the chairshop, a two and a half story frame building, and extending to the upper story. As soon as the alarm was given the prisoners in the workshop made a break, and in spite of the efforts of the officers they rushed into the yard. The prison officers rallied quickly and attempted to surround the insurgents.

When they saw the case was desperate the officers drew their clubs and charged upon the prisoners. Finding that ineffectual, revolvers were drawn and while some were fired into the air at least one officer, Thomas Donovan of the prison force, considered his life to be in danger, fired at a prisoner named Joseph Oakes, probably fatally wounding him. The whole affair lasted only a few minutes and with the assistance of a force of police the prisoners were quieted and forced into their cells.

PHENOMENAL STORM.

Five Inches of Rainfall and Great Destruction Done.

ABERDEEN, S. D., June 28.—A phenomenal storm, wind, rain and lightning swept this section yesterday afternoon, doing great damage to buildings, stock, etc. Five inches of rain fell. The streets are running streams and crops are under water.

The country districts have not been heard from, but heavy losses are expected. The rainfall exceeds anything experienced since the settlement of this part of the country.

Woonsocket, Huron, Alpena and Melletts were visited by terrific windstorms during the afternoon. Much minor damage was done.

Cyclone in Minnesota.

SLEEP EYE, Minn., June 28.—A large cyclone passed three and a half miles west of here. Wires are down and it is impossible to obtain reliable details, but several people are reported killed and a number injured. Physicians have been summoned.

An Old Settler Gone.

PORSCHEUT, O., June 28.—John L. Ward, one of the oldest settlers of Portsmouth, died at his daughter's home from old age. The deceased had accumulated quite a fortune through economy and hard work and at the time of his death was among the heaviest taxpayers of the county.

Dastardly Deed of Robbers.

VAN WERT, O., June 28.—Five robbers visited the residence of Christian Reeser, broke in a door, and after clubbing the farmer and his wife until they revealed the hidingplace of their money, secured $50 and departed. Mrs. Reeser had two ribs broken and was otherwise seriously injured.

The Last Mine Closed.

GLENWOOD SPRINGS, Colo., June 28.—All of the miners at Spring Gulch, 250 in number, have struck. This closes the last company mine on the western slope and compels a suspension at the coke ovens at Cardiff, which are supplied with Spring Gulch coal.

Acquitted.

DEFIANCE, O., June 28.—The jury in the case of Andrew Sauer, cashier of the defunct Defiance Savings bank, charged with embezzling $10,000 of the bank's funds, brought in a verdict of acquittal.

Stabbed by a Woman.

HUNTINGTON, W. V., June 28.—Charles Washington, a laborer living in this city, was stabbed by a woman named Clara Glover, yesterday evening, and is in a dying condition. Washington was asleep in his room when the woman entered and plunged a knife into his abdomen several times. Jealousy was supposed to be the cause.

ILLINOIS DEMOCRATS.
Franklin McVeagh Nominated For United States Senator.

SPRINGFIELD, Ills., June 28.—For United States senator, Franklin McVeagh; for state superintendent of public instruction, Henry Raab; for state treasurer, Bernard J. Claggett; for trustees of state university, Julia Holmes Smith, C. L. Pleasants and T. C. Clendenin.

This was the ticket nominated by the Democratic convention yesterday and the party endorsed the national administration only so far as its actions have coincided with the platform of the Chicago convention. This endorsement was the outcome of a bitter fight waged in the meeting of the platform committee by Congressman Fithian against the administration. The fight for a time threatened to result in a minority and a majority report. The struggle ended in a complete victory for Fithian, who made the committee yield to him everything he asked in the way of financial planks in the platform before he and his following would consent to the endorsement of the administration as it appears in the platform.

Constable Murdered.

SOUTH ENID, O. T., June 28.—Mr. Hutchinson, constable of North Enid township, was shot and instantly killed Tuesday night. It is not known who did the killing but it is likely the result of the town site fight. He has been very active in instituting criminal prosecutions.

Politeness of Swedes.

"The unfailing politeness of the Swedes is a constant source of wonder and astonishment to visitors," said George C. Trumon of New York. "They have a large assortment of bows and courtesies according to the age and sex of those who are thus recognized, but the lifting of the hat is so universal that it seems to be going all the time. Even the butcher's boy in meeting the baker's assistant, instead of passing him with a careless 'hello!' or giving him a friendly buffet, as an American lad might do, doffs his hat to him with elaborate courtesy." —St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Property For Sale.

I will sell privately the home place of the late John McCarthy, on the south side of the Germantown pike, just outside the city limits. A good frame house and never-failing spring on the place. The lot fronts 100 feet and 8 inches, and extends back the same width 105 feet. Will be sold cheap. Apply to M. J. McCarthy, this office.
